

Ceramics Workshopz

Creating with Clay for grades 1 & above

Ceramics Workshopz provide students with opportunities to explore and create with clay. They are guided through an artistic process that involves forming, firing, and glazing clay art pieces, and results in finished products for students to take home.

The Winter Session begins Wednesday, January 14 and continues through March 25, a total of 11 classes. Students in grades 1 and above are welcome to join the class.

Please complete the bottom portion of this flyer to enroll your child.
