

Singing Workshopz

Singing Voice Training for grades 3 to 6

Singing Workshopz are a series of group singing classes for students in grades 3 to 6. Classes focus on voice training, with students learning individual songs of choice, as well as group ensemble pieces. Voice training includes exercises and techniques that are practiced both in class and at home, all designed to help students develop their own individual ability, range, and style.

The Winter Session begins Monday, January 12 and continues through March 23. (No class 1/19 and 2/16)
An informal recital for family and friends will be held the last week of class.

Please complete the bottom portion of this flyer to enroll your child.
